Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 31-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hara et al.

Hara et al. discloses a projection device comprising:

An arc lamp light source (3) ;

optical engine means (6R, 6G, 6B) which splits light from the source into red, green, and blue wavelength bands;

DMD spatial light modulators (2R, 2G, 2B) which provide image data and plural fiducial marks in a pattern (P1, P2);

combiner means (10R, 10G, 10B) which combines the modulated wavelengths;

a diverter (41) which combines a portion of the combined modulated beams to a sensor (42), which senses relative positions of the fiducial marks and sends the information to processing means (71) which determines x, y, and angle deviation errors;

actuator means comprising screws(55, 56, 57) with motor means (58, 59, 60) which move to resolve the errors, as well as a focus position, by moving the modulators and attached optical holding means.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 3, 5-20, 22-26, 29-33 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 2/17/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's argument that Hara et al. is not a closed loop system is unpersuasive because such term is exclusive to the preamble and no limitations of this term appear in the body of the claim. No limitations drawn to continuous sensing are present in the claims.

Hara et al. teach the projection of sequential color test patterns. This amounts to a "predetermined sequence".

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2851

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
